THIS WEEK (37)

President Al McClure had the following guests introduced: Allan Douglas by John Ross, and Nick Manson and Allan Ursulak by Allan Warrack. He welcomed our own Wes Van Dusen visiting from Vancouver. Wes spoke briefly on the success of Expo this summer and the lift it gave to the economy of Vancouver and indeed of all B.C. and Canada.

He also stated that Gyro could take pride in the fact that three members were directly active in promoting the world journey of the Man in Motion, Rick Hansen, in aid of paraplegics.

~~Roger Russell appealed for more bridge players to make this season a more viable one.~~

Harry Mills distributed the 1986-87 Hockey Sweepstakes Tickets. The first game will be that of Saturday, November 8, 1986.

Dave Burnett reported on his recent visit to the Stampede City Gyro Club. Governor Marty announced that the Curl-a-Rama will be held at Banff, Alberta on the week-end of November 21 through 23, 1986. It is hoped to have at least two rinks entered.

Advertisements are sometimes intriguing and require further investigation. The Northern Echo of Durham, England recently ran an advertisement which caught the eye of the editor of the Anglican Church newspaper, Church Times. It read: "The Archdeacon requires experienced bar staff, part-time, evening only."

Seeking an explanation of this notice, the Church Times discovered that The Archdeacon is the name of a pub. But it has a very close link with Archdeacon Michael Perry of Durham.

Archdeacon Perry explained that the pub is on land which used to belong to the archdeacon of Durham; hence the name.

But, Archdeacon Perry added, the link is a bit more personal than that. The pub sign is a portrait of himself. "And so," he said, "I hang outside the pub all day and get lit up every night."

So much for reducing unemployment in Durham.

Nick Manson won the draw.
