Gordon Rennie reported briefly on the International Convention at Canton, Ohio. Gordon and Jim Little along with their wives, Ivy and Dorothy, represented their respective Clubs. Wearing Oiler hockey team sweaters with the familiar 99, they attracted considerable attention and some favorable publicity for the Club and the City.

With some 320 delegates and members in attendance the Gyro friendship and fellowship was outstanding. The largest outside group came from Trail, B.C., a District Vllll Club.

The Edmonton Club was singled out for commendation for the many interesting illustrated articles submitted by Gordon Rennie for publication in the Gyroscope.

One of the finest entertainment features of the Canton Convention, said Gordon, was a visit to the Frisian Farms of the Hannon family, near Louisville, Ohio. These handsome Frisian horses with their rich black velvety coats were introduced into the Western Hemisphere in 1973 by the Hannon family. As the Frisian is now essentially a carriage horse the Hannon family have collected over the years a number of different type coaches; and they have appeared in many parades and exhibitions in various parts of the United States and Canada.

Greetings were brought back to Russ Carter from many of his Gyro friends of long standing.

With both the Cubs and the White Sox doing well in their respective leagues we'd like to bring you back to the reality of Carl Sandburg's "CHICAGO" as if written by Rudyard Kipling.

You can talk of Mandalay, of Calcutta or Bombay,
Where the heat'll make a fuzzy-wuzzy fry;
But if to drink you're driven and don't give a damn for livin'
Then you oughta hit the road for windy Chi.

It's a town where hoods and thugs like to send a dozen slugs
Right through a copper pretty as you please

Where the breezes blow like hell

~~It's a town where hoods and thugs like to send a dozen slugs~~

Right through a copper pretty as you please

Where the breezes blow like hell, and that awful stockyard smell

Is enough to bring a blighter to his knees.

For it's Chi! Chi! Chi! guns are shootin' and I'm just a passerby!

Though your buildings may be pretty, you can keep your bloomin' city

'Cause I'm headin' back to Injia, windy Chi!

- Frank Jacobs -

We may change our minds about Chicago come October.

Cheerio
