OBITUARY

Enoch Loveseth, a veteran member of almost 60 years in the Edmonton Gyro Club, passed away at his winter home in Hollywood, Florida on Monday, April 23, 1984.

A long time member of Gyro, he joined the Club in 1925 a few short years after it was chartered. He was one of a small group of pioneers during its formative years who made Gyro what it is today.

~~During a long residence in Edmonton, Enoch contributed much to the business~~ development of the city, operating Loveseth's Imperial Service Station at the corner of 107 Street and Jasper Avenue during the early twenties. This was almost an Edmonton landmark. Later the incorporation of an expanded business, Loveseth Ltd., expressed his great faith in the future of Edmonton.
At his death he was Chairman of the Board of this business.

Our sincere and heartfelt sympathy is extended to son, Loyd, and daughters, Alvina, Joyce, and Betty Ann.

• A memorial service will be held at Foster and McGarvey Ltd. on Saturday,
May 12, 1984 at 1.00 p.m.

THIS WEEK (27)

President Ken Burnett welcomed the return of Stew Graham, Ken McKenzie, Garnet Nelson, Vern Sadd, and Howard Wilson from their respective winter homes in Yuma, Arizona. He also welcomed the presence of Elmer MacGillivray and Benny Van Loon.

It was reported that the cover of a recent edition of the official publication of the Alberta Hospital Association featured a photograph of our own Nelles Buchanan. This was a well deserved honor as Nelles over the years has devoted a tremendous amount of his talent and time to this organization.

1st Lieutenant-Governor Norman Hinton, who will be the Installing Officer at the Tri-Club Ceremony, will meet with the Executive and Directors of the Edmonton Gyro Club at the Edmonton Inn on Saturday, May 12, 1984 at 1.30 p.m.

Bert Boren won the draw.

And now for a few last thoughts.

Warning on the main street of Beverly Hills: "Beware of children going to school - especially if they are driving cars."

In the window of a fishermen's supplies store: "Guaranteed to get a pike's pique."

Boasts an American supermarket: "Here you will discover the finest liquors and the best fruits. It's where the beer and the cantaloupe play."

On the sandblaster's and high rise window cleaner's truck: "Call us if you have any dirty stories."

The sign on the shuttered magic shop: "Vanished until next season."

And now to disappear until the next meeting.

Cheerio
