LAST WEEK

Harry Mills reported that real progress is being made on our Gyro Park at Fort Edmonton Park,. Equipment is being renovated, and other work is going forward, and they hope to ~~have it in operation~~ have it in operation by next spring.

Our president was welcomed back after having spent a month touring on the continent and called an Executive Meeting for Wednesday, October 12, at his abode at 7.30 p.m.

We bid bon voyage to our Snow Bird members who will be heading South soon for the winter months. Some have already gone and others to follow.

We bid bon ~~voyage~~ voyage to our Snow Bird members who will be heading South soon for the winter months. Some have already gone and others to follow. We wish them a happy and warm time, and we ~~will~~ shall carry on until your return.

The winner of the draw was Alex Campbell.

A true music lover has been defined as a man who puts his ear to the keyhole when he hears a girl singing in the shower.

The Health Center got a letter from a girl: " Please send me a good book on personal hygiene..... I think I've got it".

Dear Jim. All is forgiven, come home soon.

And so for now

Gyjack.
