SICK AND VISITING

1. Russ Carter reported that Ella would be undergoing surgery as soon as a bed was available at the University Hospital. We trust that this will not be too far in the future.

2. Gail Hamlin is now convalescing at home after a lengthy stay in the hospital following surgery. We pray, Gail, that you will soon regain complete health.

3. Jetty Schmaltz had the misfortune recently to suffer an arm fracture. We are all pulling, Jetty, for a speedy recovery.

4. Gordon Rennie lost the tip of a finger when a window, in a free fall, dropped on it. There is no clear evidence whether he was crawling in or crawling out; but we do hope, Gordon, that the injury to this digit will neither affect your curling delivery nor your golf swing.

Those who attended the Sherwood Park Silver Plate Dinner on Friday, November 3, 1978 were rewarded with, if not monetary prizes, at least high calibre entertainment which included the re-incarnation of Sally Rand and Gypsy Rose Lee. The M.C. kept the show moving at a fast pace with a barrage of well-timed topical jokes. Even Marty Larson was observed with pencil and paper writing furiously in preparation for his next guest appearance as a roaster. And we thought Milton Berle was the only "thief of bad gags."

One is reminded of the time that Berle was listening to Jack Benny on the radio when he explained: "~~Jack was so funny that I laughed so hard and dropped my paper and pencil.~~"

And so also shall I.

Cheerio . . .
