BIRTHDAYS

Bill Graham June 17 Norm Wildgoose July 5
Phineas T. Barnum July 2

Perhaps with a look into the future and our economy in mind Phineas had the answer when he said: "Money is a terrible master but an excellent servant."

SICK AND VISITING

1. George Bissett has had the supporting pin removed from his hip. He sends regards to all members.
2. Norm Wildgoose was reported to have undergone surgery on June 14.

AN AWARD WINNER

Our congratulations to Padre Rev. Dr. Jess Bigelow, one of three worthy winners of the first Sir Frederick Haultain prize ($25,000.00), part of the Alberta Heritage Scholarship Fund. Jess, Minister of Westmount Presbyterian Church, was instrumental in developing interdenominational contacts among churches in the Westmount district. We share, along with his good wife

AN AWARD WINNER

Our congratulations to Padre Rev. Dr. Jess Bigelow, one of three worthy winners of the first Sir Frederick Haultain prize ($25,000.00), part of the Alberta Heritage Scholarship Fund. Jess, Minister of Westmount Presbyterian Church, was instrumental in developing interdenominational contacts among churches in the Westmount district. We share, along with his good wife, Margaret, in the joy of this honor.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Annual Crossroads Gyro Club Golf Tournament was held at the Salisbury Golf Club, Sherwood Park, on Monday, June 28, 1982 with some 40 Gyros and Gyrettes taking part. When the stroke count of each competitor had been duly computed and audited, the leader board showed the name of Gordon Rennie at the top. This was a popular win as Gordon is a member of both Edmonton and Crossroads. At the dinner which followed in the Regency Motor Inn he was presented with the Championship Trophy, a replica, and a jacket. While this wasn't the green jacket of the Masters, it was a very reasonable facsimile. Allan Warrack proved to be the best prognosticator, winning the pot for pre-guessing his score for 17 holes of play. He was right on. Our sincere thanks to Rick Little and his Committee for an enjoyable day. As an afterthought the writer was somewhat at loss in deciding which section of the Gyrolog to include the above.

Some years ago a gentleman, Francis Albertanti by name, served briefly as the sports editor of a New York paper. His chief interest then was in the fight game. When prodded by the managing editor to print some golf news he refused. "But there are many wealthy and influential men very much interested in golf," his editor persisted.

"Ten for heaven's sake," growled Albertanti, "print it in the financial section!"

THIS WEEK (24)

Allan Warrack introduced his brother-in-law, Sandy Rennie, of the Department of Physio-Therapy, University of Alberta. Dave Duchak introduced his brother-in-law, Bill Finch of Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan.

President Tommy welcomed the return of John Halford and Lou Tremblay from their winter residences in San Diego, California, and Yuma, Arizona, respectively.

Harry Mills gave a progress report on the construction of Gyro Playground No. 10 at Fort Edmonton Park. Work has commenced and Harry expects that the Official Opening will take place in the near future. It is hoped to second Doug Flamme of Calgary as a consultant on the type of playground equipment to purchase.

That's thirty for today.
